 Cancellation requests may not be made on Vendor Forms in the manner of "if I do not get my requested space, please cancel my booth space and refund my money" or any iteration of such language. It is solely your responsibility to send in a separate written request for cancellation, prior to the cancellation date listed above, if you are not satisfied with booth placement and you want a refund.

Vendor information packets will be mailed one to two weeks prior to the event. Until then, no specific location information will be made available. All vendors must read the Commercial Vendor Policy, available on our website or from the Museum, and sign below to be considered for this event.

Please sign here to indicate you have read our Vendor Policy _____

40th ANNUAL APPLE DAY RAFFLE & SILENT AUCTION

Community Contribution INFORMATION

Our Apple Day Raffle is a time-honored tradition. Vendors and local businesses have been donating to this raffle for the last 39 years! Thank you for your continued contributions to this well loved and highly anticipated part of the event. It gives you the opportunity to have some extra publicity through marketing pieces that you can place with your item (business cards work great!) and promotes additional foot traffic to your booth throughout the day. Winners are announced on the hour, with a thank you and a shout-out to the contributing business! A 501c3 tax deduction form can be mailed to you on request. You can bring your contribution in any time the Museum is open and right before the event. Thank you!

Apple Day's - DELECTABLE - Opportunities

Imagine the possibilities...

We still reserve the right to exclusively sell Apple Butter, Apple Pies, Caramel Apples, Apple Cider, Apple Chutney, and Fresh Apples but we invite you to expand your culinary repertoire and offer your customers your edible apple creations! Certain restrictions still apply - see details below.

Restrictions:

No creamed pies, dairy products, salsa, or meats unless prepared in a certified kitchen. No apple pies, apple butter, caramel apples, apple cider, apple chutney, fresh apples or apple cider. These specific apple products and fresh apples are sold exclusively by the Museum. Policy subject to change at the discretion of the Museum. Licensing is required for certain types of food booths. Special event licensing is also required for food booths. It is your responsibility to have proper licensing in place. Without it, you may be asked to leave the event. For information on licensing, contact Jenni Frase at 406.375.6568 or at jfrase@rc.mt.gov. No more than 2 booths with certain food products, no more than 1 franchise (such as Mary Kay, Norwex, etc.) As we receive applications with menus, food items will be posted on our website. Please check our site to determine if we already have two of a certain type of food vendor or 1 of a franchise before applying.

Apple Night's - DELICIOUS - Diversions

The perks of ANNUAL LIQUID APPLE Night

Hard Cider • Delicious Food • Live Music

Commemorative Apple Night glass for cider sampling

Wide variety of cider to try

DELICIOUS Food

Fabulous MUSICIANS

Enjoy yourself under the twinkle lights with a glass of delicious cider created by cider makers from the Rocky Mountain northwest, local food, and music. Your entrance fee covers a beautiful Liquid Apple Night commemorative glass for cider sampling. You must be 21 years or older to sample ciders. Tickets will be available soon. This event is family friendly. Non-alcoholic beverages will also be available.

Apple Night Opportunity for Food Vendors:

Our cider committee chooses 2 or 3 food vendors each year to have a booth at Liquid Apple Night. If you are interested, please contact Sarah right away for consideration. Additional fees will apply.

Email your menu to Sarah at: marketing@ravallimuseum.org and put "Liquid Apple Night" in the subject line.

Join us - October 5th at 5pm, following Apple Day
