

Bitter Root Day Jerky Competition

Slice • Season • Dry • Nosh • Repeat

A competition is a wild game that's been going on since the buffalo roamed and we're thrilled ours is on its 7th year! So don't be a chicken! Beef up your game by entering your homemade, mouth-watering bits of chewy, jerky goodness. Now, be a lamb and submit at least 8 strips (or the equivalent in bits), along with your entry form by June 7th. We're trying to figure out how to cleverly say something about turkey too, but don't worry, we're not fishing for compliments.
